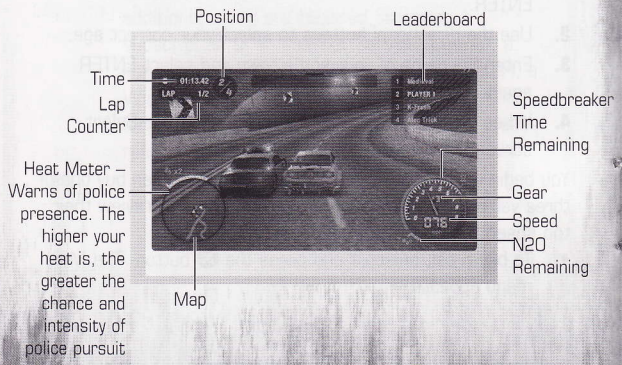
GAME SCREEN



BUST EVASION

When you're aiming to become the Most Wanted racer, the heat is always on. Elude the cops with a souped up ride and a lot of fancy pedal work. But what happens if you can't shake a police pursuit? Here are some pointers.

- Out-drive the Cops – It's a no-brainer, but it works. Drive faster and ride harder to keep the police constantly eating your exhaust.
- Take a Shortcut – The police can't pursue you where they can't find you.
- Ram the Police Car into Traffic – Can't shake your tail? Give him something bigger to worry about.

DOUBLING DOWN

If you win a Career race with a full heat meter, you may be offered the chance to double down. When doubling down, you are challenged to outrun the police. Win and you are awarded double the cash prize and bonus respect points. Fail to outrun the cops in the time allowed and you lose it all.

- When DOUBLE DOWN appears on-screen, press ■ to begin the outrun challenge.

  Note: Doubling down does not affect your career progression, accumulated cash or current respect points earned before the race.

SAVING AND LOADING

Note: Your progress is saved automatically each time you win a race or apply upgrades to your car if you have the autosave feature enabled in your profile.

- To load a game you must first create a profile. After you create your profile, the game loads automatically every time you start your PSP™ system with Need for Speed™ Most Wanted 5-1-0 inserted.
